Defendant/Counterclaimant.

Case No: 2:21-cv-00332-GMN-EJY

~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 Plaintiffs and Counter-Defendants Power Probe, Inc. and Power Probe TeK, LLC
2 (“Power Probe” and/or “Plaintiffs”) and Defendant and Counterclaimant Innova Electronics
3 Corporation (“Innova” or “Defendant”) (Plaintiffs and Defendant are collectively “the Parties”),
4 have submitted a Joint Motion for Entry of a [Proposed] Protective Order (the “Joint Motion”)
5 pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 26(c), LPR. 1-4(a), and the Ninth Circuit’s directives in Kamakana v.
6 City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

8 The Court, having duly considered the Parties’ Joint Motion, and finding that good cause
9 exists for entry of a protective order, now ORDERS that the Parties shall observe the following 10 provisions of this Protective Order:

11 1. Scope. All disclosures, affidavits and declarations and exhibits thereto,
12 deposition testimony and exhibits, discovery responses, documents, electronically stored 13 information, tangible objects, information, and other things produced, provided, or disclosed in 14 the course of this action which may be subject to restrictions on disclosure under this Order, and 15 information derived directly therefrom (hereinafter referred to collectively as “documents”), 16 shall be subject to this Order as set forth below. As there is a presumption in favor of open and 17 public judicial proceedings in the federal courts, this Order shall be strictly construed in favor of 18 public disclosure and open proceedings wherever possible. The Order is also subject to the 19 Local Rules of this District and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on matters of procedure and 20 calculation of time periods.
21

23 2. Form and Timing of Designation. A party may designate documents as 24 confidential and restricted in disclosure under this Order by placing or affixing the words 25 “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” (hereinafter referred to as 26 “CONFIDENTIAL”), or “ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE
27 ORDER” (hereinafter referred to as “ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY”), or “OUTSIDE 28

1 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” (hereinafter referred to
2 as “OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY”) (collectively “Protected Materials”) on the 3 document in a manner that will not interfere with the legibility of the document and that will 4 permit complete removal of the designation. Documents shall be designated prior to or at the 5 time of the production or disclosure of the documents. When a tangible object is produced for 6 inspection subject to protection under this Order, a photograph thereof shall be produced at the 7 time of inspection labeled with the designation CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY
8 or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY. Thereafter, any information learned or obtained as a 9 result of the inspection shall be subject to protection under this Order in accordance with the 10 applicable designation. When electronically stored information is produced which cannot itself
11 be marked with the designation CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY or OUTSIDE
12 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, the physical media on which such electronically stored
13 information is produced shall be marked with the applicable designation. The party receiving 14 such electronically stored information shall then be responsible for labeling any copies that it
15 creates thereof, whether electronic or paper, with the applicable designation. By written 16 stipulation the parties may agree temporarily to designate original documents that are produced
17 for inspection CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS
18 EYES ONLY even though the original documents being produced have not themselves been so 19 labeled. All information learned in the course of such an inspection shall be protected in 20 accordance with the stipulated designation. The copies of documents that are selected for 21 copying during such an inspection shall be marked CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES
22 ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY as required under this Order and, thereafter,
23 the copies shall be subject to protection under this Order in accordance with their designation.
24 The designation of documents for protection under this Order does not mean that the document
26
27
28

1 has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except to the extent and for the purposes of 2 this Order.

3 3. Documents Which May be Designated CONFIDENTIAL. Any party may 4 designate documents as CONFIDENTIAL upon making a good faith determination that the 5 documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute or that should be protected 6 from disclosure as confidential business or personal information, medical or psychiatric 7 information, trade secrets, personnel records, or such other sensitive commercial information that 8 is not readily publicly available. Public records and documents that are readily publicly 9 available may not be designated for protection under this Order.
10

11 4. Documents Which May be Designated ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY. Any 12 party may designate documents as ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY upon making a good faith 13 determination that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute or that 14 should be protected from disclosure as trade secrets or highly sensitive personal, financial, or 15 business information.
16

17 5. Documents Which May be Designated OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES
18 ONLY. Any party may designate documents as OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY upon 19 making a good faith determination that the documents contain information protected from 20 disclosure by statute or that should be protected from disclosure such as: (a) commercially 21 sensitive marketing, financial, sales, web traffic, research and development, or technical data or 22 information; (b) commercially sensitive competitive information, including, without limitation,
23 information obtained from a Non-Party pursuant to a current Nondisclosure Agreement
24 (“NDA”); (c) information or data relating to future products not yet commercially released
25 and/or strategic plans; (d) commercial agreements, licenses and licensing terms, settlement 26 agreements, or settlement communications, the disclosure of which is likely to cause harm to the 27
28

1 competitive position of the Producing Party; (e) trade secrets, pricing or profit information, sales
2 or marketing forecasts or plans, business plans, sales or marketing strategy, product development
3 information, engineering documents, testing documents, employee information, customer lists,
4 and other non-public information of similar competitive and business sensitivity; or (f) 5 information that is likely to cause economic harm or significant competitive disadvantage to the 6 Producing Party if disclosed.

7
8 6. Depositions. Deposition testimony shall be presumptively deemed 9 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY for a period of twenty-five (25) calendar days following receipt of 10 the final transcript by counsel for the deponent (or by the deponent if not represented by 11 counsel). Within twenty-five (25) calendar days following receipt of the final transcript, the 12 parties shall review the transcript and specifically designate portions of the transcript
13 CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY as 14 appropriate, by notifying all counsel of record in writing of said designation. Such designation
15 shall be specific as to the portions of the transcript designated for protection under this Order.
16 Thereafter, the deposition testimony so designated shall be separately bound and protected,
17 pending objection, under the terms of this Order. If counsel for the deponent, the deponent,
18 counsel for a party, or a party designates a portion of the deposition testimony
19 CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY on 20 the record during the deposition, the designating person shall have the right to exclude all 21 persons not authorized to receive such information under this Order from the deposition, or any 22 portion thereof, before taking the designated testimony. Any such designation on the record
23 relieves the designating party from thereafter making a written designation as provided above.
25
26
27
28

1 7. Protection of Confidential Material.

2 (a) Protection of Documents Designated CONFIDENTIAL. Documents
3 designated CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used for any purpose
4 whatsoever other than the prosecution or defense of this action, and of any appeal thereof.
5 This agreement, however, does not encompass materials that (a) were in the recipient's 6 possession before receipt from the discloser, (b) are or become publicly known without 7 breach by the recipient, (c) are rightfully received by the recipient from a third party who 8 obtained the materials by proper means without a duty of confidentiality, (d) are 9 disclosed by the discloser to a third party without a duty of confidentiality on the third
10 party, or (e) are independently developed or learned by the recipient. The parties and 11 counsel for the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any documents 12 designated CONFIDENTIAL to any third person or entity except as set forth in 13 subparagraphs (1)–(7) below. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of 17 within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the lawsuit.

25
26
27

2 contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and
3 Agreement to Be Bound.

4 (b) Protection of Documents Designated ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY.

5 Documents designated ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY under this Order shall not be used

10 third party who obtained the materials by proper means without a duty of confidentiality, 11 (d) are disclosed by the discloser to a third party without a duty of confidentiality on the 12 third party, or (e) are independently developed or learned by the recipient. The parties

25 require access to such materials and who are not current employees of any 26

2 litigation.

3 (2) In-House And Non-Record Outside Attorneys for the Parties. Two (2)

18

19 (6) Consultants and Investigators. Consultants and investigators employed

5 procedure of Paragraph 7(g) of this Order has been satisfied.

6 (8) Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the 7 producing party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may
8 be agreed or ordered. All such persons shall execute the certification
9 contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and 10 Agreement to Be Bound.

11
12 (c) Protection of Documents Designated OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES
13 ONLY. Documents designated OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY under this 14 Order shall not be used for any purpose whatsoever other than the prosecution or defense
15 of this action, and of any appeal thereof. This agreement, however, does not encompass 16 materials that (a) were in the recipient's possession before receipt from the discloser, (b)
17 are or become publicly known without breach by the recipient, (c) are rightfully received 18 by the recipient from a third party who obtained the materials by proper means without a 19 duty of confidentiality, (d) are disclosed by the discloser to a third party without a duty of

- 19 (5) Consultants and Investigators. Consultants and investigators employed
20 by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial

26
27
28

1 (6) Experts. Testifying experts employed by the parties or counsel for the 2 parties to assist in the preparation and trial of this action or proceeding, but 3 only after (a) such persons have completed the certification contained in 4 Attachment A, Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound, and (b) the 5 procedure of Paragraph 7(g) of this Order has been satisfied.

6 (7) Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the 7 producing party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may
8 be agreed or ordered. All such persons shall execute the certification
9 contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and 10 Agreement to Be Bound.
11

12 (d) Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall take reasonable and 13 appropriate measures to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated for 14 protection under this Order. Counsel shall maintain the originals of the forms signed by 15 persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order for a period of one (1) year 16 after dismissal of the action, the entry of final judgment and/or the conclusion of any 17 appeals arising therefrom.
18

19 (e) Copies. All copies of documents designated for protection under this 20 Order, or any individual portion of such a document, shall be marked with the 21 designation CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE
22 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY if the words do not already appear on the copy. All such 23 copies shall be entitled to the protection of this Order. The term “copies” shall not 24 include indices, electronic databases or lists of documents provided these indices, 25 electronic databases or lists do not contain substantial portions or images of the text of 26 designated documents or otherwise disclose the substance of the designated documents.
27
28

1 (f) Inadvertent Production. Inadvertent production of any document or 2 information without a designation of CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or 3 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY or any document or information subject to 4 attorney-client privilege, work product immunity, or any other applicable privilege or 5 immunity shall be governed by Fed. R. Evid. 502. Such inadvertent production shall not 6 constitute a waiver of, nor a prejudice to, any claim that such documents or information is
7 CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES
8 ONLY, privileged, or protected by the work product immunity or any other applicable 9 privilege or immunity, provided that the designating party notifies the receiving party in 10 writing promptly after discovery of such inadvertent production. Such inadvertently 11 produced documents and all copies thereof shall be promptly returned to the designating 12 party upon request. No use shall be made of such documents other than to challenge the 13 propriety of the allegedly omitted designation or the asserted privilege or immunity, nor 14 shall the documents be subsequently shown to anyone who has not already been given 15 access to them. No demonstration or proof of error, inadvertence, excusable neglect, or 16 absence of negligence shall be required of the designating party in order for such party to 17 avail itself of the provisions of this paragraph.

18
20 (g) Notice Prior to Disclosure. Before any Expert may be given access to 21 documents or information designated CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, 22 or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, the party seeking to provide such access (the 23 “requesting party”) must give written notice to the designating party of its intention to 24 make such disclosure, providing the person’s name, address, and a curriculum vitae, and 25 for testifying experts, including a list of all publications authored in the last ten (10) years
26 by the person to whom disclosure is proposed. The notice must also provide for 27
28

1 testifying experts, a list of all litigations in which the person to whom the disclosure is 2 proposed testified within the last four (4) years. Within five (5) business days from the 3 service of such written notice (the “notice period”), the designating party may object to 4 such disclosure by service of a written notice of objection on the party seeking to make 5 the disclosure, stating the reasons for the objection. The requesting party may not
6 disclose documents or information designated CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES
7 ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY to any such person prior to the 8 expiration of the notice period unless consent is granted earlier by the designating party.
9 If the designating party notifies the requesting party of its objection to disclosure (an 10 “objection notice”), the party objecting to the disclosure may file a motion seeking to 11 prohibit the disclosure, and that party shall have the burden of justifying the objection.
12 The motion must be made within ten (10) business days after the date of the objection
13 notice. Failure to file the motion constitutes consent to disclosure. If a motion is filed, 14 the requesting party may not make such disclosure while such motion is pending.

15 8. Filing of CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE
16 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY Documents Under Seal. The Court highly discourages the 17 manual filing of any pleadings or other papers under seal. To the extent that a pleading or other 18 paper references an exhibit designated for protection under this Order, then the pleading or other 19 paper shall refer the Court to the particular exhibit filed under seal without disclosing the 20 contents of any confidential information.
21 22 23

24 (a) Before any exhibit designated for protection under this Order is filed
25 under seal with the Clerk, the filing party shall first consult with the party that originally 26 designated the document for protection under this Order to determine whether, with the 27 28

1 consent of that party, the exhibit or a redacted version of the exhibit may be filed with the 2 Court not under seal.

3 (b) Where agreement is not possible or adequate, an exhibit designated for 4 protection under this Order shall be filed electronically under seal in accordance with the 5 electronic case filing procedures of this Court. The filing party is not required to seek 6 prior leave of the Court to file an exhibit designated for protection under seal, as Local 7 Rule 10-5(b) would normally require.

8
9 (c) Where filing electronically under seal is not possible or adequate, before 10 an exhibit designated for protection under this Order is filed with the Clerk, it shall be 11 placed in a sealed envelope marked CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or 12 OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY which envelope shall also display the case 13 name, docket number, a designation of what the exhibit is, the name of the party in whose 14 behalf it is submitted, and the name of the attorney who has filed the exhibit on the front
15 of the envelope. A copy of any exhibit filed under seal shall also be delivered to the 16 judicial officer's chambers.
17

18 (d) To the extent that it is necessary for a party to discuss the contents of any 19 document designated for protection under this Order in a pleading or other paper filed 20 with this Court, then such portion of the pleading or other paper shall be filed under seal.
21 In such circumstances, counsel shall prepare two versions of the pleading or other paper,
22 a public and a sealed version. The public version shall contain a redaction of references
23 to CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY
24 documents. The sealed version shall be a full and complete version of the pleading or 25 other paper and shall be filed with the Clerk under seal as above. A copy of the un-26 redacted pleading or other paper also shall be delivered to the judicial officer's chambers.

1 9. Challenges by a Party to a Designation for Protection Under this Order. Any 2 CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY
3 designation is subject to challenge by any party or non-party with standing to object (hereafter
4 “party”). Before filing any motions or objections to a designation for protection under this Order
5 with the Court, the objecting party shall have an obligation to meet and confer in a good faith
6 effort to resolve the objection by agreement. If agreement is reached confirming or waiving the 7 designation as to any documents subject to the objection, the designating party shall serve on all 8 parties a notice specifying the documents and the nature of the agreement.
9

10 10. Action by the Court. Applications to the Court for an order relating to any 11 documents designated for protection under this Order shall be by motion under Local Rules 7-1 12 or 7-2 and any other procedures set forth in the presiding judge’s standing orders or other
13 relevant orders. Nothing in this Order or any action or agreement of a party under this Order 14 limits the Court’s power to make any orders that may be appropriate with respect to the use and 15 disclosure of any documents produced or used in discovery or at trial.
16

17 11. Use of Confidential Documents or Information at a Hearing or Trial. Absent
18 order of the Court, all hearing and trial proceedings are open to the public and there will be no
19 restrictions on the use at a hearing or trial of any document designated for protection under this 20 Order. If a party intends to present at a hearing or trial documents designated for protection 21 under this Order, or information derived therefrom, such party shall provide advance notice to 22 the party designating the documents for protection under this Order least five (5) days before the 23 commencement of a hearing or trial by identifying the documents or information at issue as 24 specifically as possible (i.e., by Bates number, page range, deposition transcript lines, etc.).
25 Upon motion of the party designating the document for protection under this Order, the Court
26
27
28

1 may thereafter make such orders as are necessary to govern the use of such documents or 2 information at a hearing or trial.

3 12. Obligations on Conclusion of Litigation.

4 (a) Order Remains in Effect. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, this Order 5 shall remain in force after dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further 6 appeal.

7 (b) Return of Documents Designated for Protection Under this Order.
8 Within thirty (30) days after dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further 9 appeal, all documents designated for protection under this Order, including copies as 10 defined in Paragraph 6(d), shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the 11 document has been offered into evidence or filed without restriction as to disclosure; (2) 12 the parties agree to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents bearing the 13 notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving party, that party 14 elects to destroy the documents and certifies to the producing party that it has done so.
15 Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may 16 retain copies of all pleadings, motions, orders, written discovery, and other papers filed
17 with the Court or exchanged by the parties even though they may contain documents
18 designated for protection under this Order. Counsel may also retain attorney work 19 product, including an index which refers or relates to documents designated for 20 protection under this Order, so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim 21 substantial portions of the text or images of documents designated for protection under 22 this Order. This work product shall continue to be subject to the protections of this Order
23 in accordance with the applicable designation. An attorney may use his or her work
24
25
26
27
28

1 product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose or use documents
2 designated for protection under this Order.

3 (c) Return of Documents Filed under Seal. After dismissal or entry of final 4 judgment not subject to further appeal, the Clerk may elect to return to counsel for the 5 parties or, after notice, destroy documents filed or offered at trial under seal or otherwise
6 restricted by the Court as to disclosure.

7
8 13. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification by 9 the Court on its own motion or on motion of a party or any other person with standing 10 concerning the subject matter. Motions to modify this Order shall be served and filed under 11 Local Rules 7-1 and 7-2, and the presiding judge's standing orders or other relevant orders.

12 14. No Prior Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the 13 representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery.
14 Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any documents
15 designated for protection under this Order are entitled to protection under Rule 26(c) of the 16 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as the Court may rule on a specific 17 document or issue.

18
19 15. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding
20 upon all counsel and their law firms, the parties, and persons made subject to this Order by its 21 terms, including third parties who avail themselves of the terms and conditions of this Order
22 pursuant to Paragraph 14(a).

23
24 16. Third Parties. A party seeking discovery from a third party shall provide a copy
25 of this Order to each third party required to produce documents or otherwise formally disclose 26 information in response to discovery requests during this action. Such third parties may elect to 27 avail themselves of the terms and conditions of this Order, and thereby become a "designating 28

1 party” or a “producing party” within the meaning of those terms as they are used in the context
2 of this Order.

3 17. Other Provisions.

4 (a) If the receiving party learns that any document designated
5 CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES
6 ONLY produced to it is disclosed to or comes into the possession of any person other 7 than in the manner authorized by this Order, the receiving party responsible for the 8 disclosure must immediately inform the designating party of such disclosure and make a 9 good faith effort to retrieve any information so disclosed and to prevent disclosure by 10 each unauthorized person who received such information.

12 (b) In the event that any document designated CONFIDENTIAL,
13 ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY under this 14 Order is sought by any person or entity not a party to this action, whether by subpoena in 15 another action or service with any legal process, the party receiving such subpoena or 16 service shall promptly notify the designating party in writing if such subpoena or service
17 demands the production of any document so designated. Any such person or entity
18 seeking such any document designated CONFIDENTIAL, ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY, 19 or OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY by attempting to enforce such subpoena or 20 other legal process shall be apprised of this Order by the party upon whom the subpoena
21 or process was served. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring anyone covered by 22 this Order to contest a subpoena or other process, to appeal any order requiring 23 production of any document so designated covered by this Order, or to subject itself to 24 penalties for non-compliance with any legal process or order.
25
26
27
28

1 (c) The computation of any period of time prescribed or allowed by this Order
2 shall be governed by the provisions for computing time set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 3 Procedure 6.

4 (d) The Parties' lawyers, including outside attorneys and in-house counsel, 5 shall be subject to the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct. For purposes of 6 interpreting these rules, Rule 1.9(b)(2) will be deemed satisfied where a firm with which 7 a lawyer formerly was associated had previously represented a client.

8
9 (e) No Party shall be required to identify on their respective privilege log any 10 document or communication related to this litigation dated on or after the filing of this 11 lawsuit, which absent this provision, the Party would have been obligated to so identify 12 on said privilege log. The Parties shall exchange their respective privilege document logs
13 at a time to be agreed upon by the Parties following the production of documents.

14 (f) This Protective Order shall be binding upon the Parties and their attorneys,
15 successors, executors, personal representative, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, 16 assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, employees, agents, independent contractors, or other 17 persons or organizations over which they have control.

18
19 (g) All notices required by this Protective Order are to be served on the 20 attorney(s) for each of the Defendant and Plaintiffs listed in the signature block below for 21 each Party.
